

To: [Ex. 6 - Personal Privacy]
Cc: Schweer, Greg[Schweer.Greg@epa.gov]; Doa, Maria[Doa.Maria@epa.gov]
From: Moss, Kenneth
Sent: Wed 1/22/2014 2:28:23 PM
Subject: RE: Washington Post articles from Jim Alwood

Oh, I missed that article or part of that article. Yikes.

Kenneth Moss
USEPA

Team Leader, New Chemicals Program

Office of Pollution Prevention and Toxics (7405M)
WJC EPA East Building, room 4133C

1201 Constitution Ave., NW

Phone: 202-564-9232, Fax: 202-564-9490

From: [Ex. 6 - Personal Privacy]
Sent: Monday, January 20, 2014 8:38 AM
To: Moss, Kenneth
Subject: Fw: Washington Post articles from Jim Alwood

On Monday, January 20, 2014 8:34 AM, James Alwood [Ex. 6 - Personal Privacy]

Oh Goody - two articles in the Washington Post dragging TSCA and new chemical review into this West Virginia mess. In the first article Eastman actually states that in 1997 they sent in a new chemical notice regarding a similar chemical/chemical in the formulation and EPA took no action. There might be questions from folk higher up.

http://www.washingtonpost.com/business/economy/new-owner-of-freedom-industries-must-face-fallout-of-west-virginia-chemical-spill/2014/01/17/77b1a572-7df2-11e3-93c1-0e888170b723_story.html?tid=auto_complete

http://www.washingtonpost.com/national/health-science/west-virginia-chemical-spill-in-elk-river-poses-a-new-chemistry-test-for-lawmakers/2014/01/19/993d5a66-7ed7-11e3-93c1-0e888170b723_story.html